Beth Page, CALM Faculty, publishes fourth book - Change Happens

Posted March 25th, 2011 by skosty

Home :: RoadSpiel

Please join us to congratulate Beth Page, Associate Faculty Member with the Centre for Applied Leadership and Management (CALM), on the publication of her newest book, Change Happens. Beth Page is an author, international consultant and speaker dedicated to reintroducing people to their greatness. Through coaching, consulting and speaking, she is an advocate who leads the revolution of people connected to their essential self.

We invite you to participate in the online launch of the new book Change Happens on March 30, 2011. Visit www.changehappenseveryday.com to purchase your copy and as a special thank you for supporting the March 30 launch date, you will also be able to download a Change Leaders toolkit to support the change efforts in your organization.

A couple of highlights from the toolkit include:

- A Change Readiness Assessment offered by consultant and author Roger Harrison
- A Competency Leader's Assessment offered by Patwell Consulting
- The Three in One Strategic Communications model offered by Communications Expert, Laura Jackson
